Basic, but pertinent information will be needed to be filled out such as; arrival, departure, how many and names of people in each vehicle, vehicle information, etc... These forms need to be filled out last and sent to our resort at least a week in advance to avoid hassles at check-in.

6. COLLECTING DEPOSITS: 100% prepayment is required within 14 days of making reservations, but at least 10 working days prior to date of arrival. In addition, we have learned that it is easier to round off amounts to the next higher amount. This avoids coin hassles; and, if per person fees change in response to changing plans (i.e. if your number drops below a specific group discount amount) the leader doesn't have to go back and collect as much. Plus if you find too much money in your collective pot, the extra can be used to purchase a souvenir for the leader or the group.
